

Macleod Supply Co. Ltd.

GROCERIES :: FRESH FRUITS
CHINA & GLASSWARE

PRESERVING FRUITS

PEARS NOW ARRIVING. LEAVE YOUR ORDERS WITH US. THE SEASON FOR BARTLETT'S WILL BE SHORT. WE WILL FILL ALL ORDERS AT LOWEST PRICES.

CHINA AND GLASSWARE

Attractive prices on all plain white china for the Harvest Season.
A complete stock of Cups and Saucers, Plates, Dishes, Etc.

PURITY FLOUR

"The Store of Quality" Prompt Delivery Service Phone 8

GENTLEMEN

Mr. Palmer of the House of Hoberlin, will be here on SAT., SEPT. 1st with a full line of Suits and Overcoats samples for fall and winter. You are cordially invited to see this fine range of goods.

J. V. MOREASH

ADVERTISING IN THE MACLEOD TIMES PAYS

In the grassy, shade-strewn orchards of the joyous Long-Acre Vacant, swarms are waiting idly for the friends they used to know—For the friends whose laughter mingled once with many a merry cry To those blossoming borders of the days gone by
To and fro the stream swings on, while the soft spring breeze Stirs the petals down like snow from the apple trees;
To and fro, how high, now low, as in the life's April-ide; How near, how far, those days are When the Died!

GRAIN

INSURANCE

We insure the stock, stack or buildings, threatened or un-threatened any place on the farm at a cheap rate.

INSURE NOW

K. A. Y. REALTY CO.
Phone 269, Macleod

Men's Clothing!

T. & D. Clothing for summer wear, light and dark shades.
Gold suits, just the thing for the season.
EVERYTHING IN FOOT WEAR FOR MEN
Fine and work shoes, Silk, Cotton and Linen Hosiery.

SUMMER HATS FOR MEN
Men's Straw and Felt Hats, new styles. Boys' Straw and Felt Hats.

MEN'S SHIRTS AND UNDERWEAR
Men's and boys' Balbriggan Combinations and Two-Piece Suits; also a heavier line in Men's Cotton Combinations.
Men's and Boys' Negligee and Work Shirts.

WOMEN'S & CHILDREN'S SUMMER WEAR

DRESS FABRICS
A very choice collection of Dress Fabrics, consisting of Ginghams, Flannels, Homespuns, Batines and Yellies. Great care was exercised in the selection of these goods. They are bound to please.

LADIES' AND MISSES' SUMMER UNDERWEAR Ladies' and Misses' one and two-piece Suits, Balbriggan and Lisle.

LADIES' AND MISSES' SUMMER HATS
Women's Straw Hats; Children's Straw and Linen Hats; Wool Hats for Kiddies.

FOOTWEAR FOR LADIES AND CHILDREN
Ladies' Slippers, Pumps and Oxfords; Kid and Patent; Boys' Canvas Slippers and Oxfords; Sport Shoes, Boys' and Girls' Canvas Shoes, black, white and brown, the well-known Pleasant brand.

Boys' and Girls' Canvas Shoes, black, white and brown, the well-known Pleasant brand.
Boys' and Girls' Canvas Shoes, black, white and brown, the well-known Pleasant brand.

Boys' and Girls' Canvas Shoes, black, white and brown, the well-
known Pleasant brand.
Boys' and Girls' Canvas Shoes, black, white and brown, the well-known Pleasant brand.

Boys' and Girls' Canvas Shoes, black, white and brown, the well-
known Pleasant brand.
Boys' and Girls' Canvas Shoes, black, white and brown, the well-known Pleasant brand.

Boys' and Girls' Canvas Shoes, black, white and brown, the well-
known Pleasant brand.
Boys' and Girls' Canvas Shoes, black, white and brown, the well-
known Pleasant brand.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL NEWS

SCHOOL STARTS ON TUESDAY

SEPTEMBER 4th

Yesterday's yesterday while today's here, today till tomorrow
appear, tomorrow till the day after, today's are studies as long as they last.

Jimmy Forbes of Grasmere was visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. Young over the week-end.

Miss Helen Parker was a week-end visitor in Lethbridge, where she attended a vacation at Nelson and Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Barker are spending a vacation at Nelson and
Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Barker are spending a vacation at Nelson and

Miss Gertrude Sanderson is spending a couple of weeks at her home,
east of Macleod.

Wesley Shield of Beach and Company was a business visitor to Calgary on Tuesday week.

Miss Mildred McLeod of Grasmere
is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Young for a few days this week.

Mrs. C. D. T. Becker and Miss
Lillian Becker, are enjoying a holiday
at the C. D. T. Becker's.

G. R. Johnston, manager of the Bank of Montreal, spent the weekend at Waterbury Lakes with friends.

Mrs. W. J. Ryan returned to her home on Monday night, after visiting in Calgary for the past two weeks.

Miss Jessie Grant of Calgary is visiting her vacation with friends and relatives in Macleod and the country.

Mrs. A. T. Leather and Miss T.
Leather, who have been visiting in Macleod for several weeks, returned to Macleod last Saturday.

Miss Helen McFarlane, who has been the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Kirk retained to her home in Calgary last week, accompanied by Miss Velma
Kirk, who will be her guest.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Andrews, formerly
of Macleod, now of Port Huron, Ont., C. visited friends in Macleod over the week-end enroute to Calgary over the Banff Windermere Road.

At the Horticultural Show of flowers and vegetables held at Calgary
this morning, the prize for collection of six daisies,
and first prize for collection of six daisies,
and first prize for collection of six daisies,

R. G. Hutchinson of Dayton, Ohio and N. Mahoney of Macleod, now of Pacific Grain Company, Calgary, were visitors in Macleod last week, accompanied by Arthur Young, spent several days fishing at the North Fork.

Among the visitors from town to Waterbury Lakes last week-end were
Mr. J. Young and two daughters,
Mr. and Mrs. Longhead, Mr. and Mrs. Dillingham, Mrs. R. Ferguson
and Mrs. E. Whipple, Mr. and Mrs. E.
Neil and N. Dillman.

Word has been received from New York to the effect that Mr. and Mrs.
S. P. Fraser formerly of Macleod, now of New Fraser, B. C. are on a visit to the east and during the trip, Mr. and Mrs. Fraser will be at his home in New Fraser, B. C. for a few days.

James Wilson died at his home in
Macleod on Friday, August 17, 1928.
He was 75 years of age. He had been ill for the past six months, and his death was not unexpected. He was born in Scotland some years ago, and settled with his family in Macleod, where he was employed as a farm hand. He was a member of the Macleod branch of the Blood Reserve and later became an Indian agent. In 1908 he returned to
Macleod, where he had many friends.

James Wilson died at his home in
Macleod on Friday, August 17, 1928.
He was 75 years of age. He had been ill for
the past six months, and his death was
not unexpected. He was born in Scot-
land some years ago, and settled with
his family in Macleod, where he was
employed as a farm hand. He was a
member of the Macleod branch of the
Blood Reserve and later became an
Indian agent. In 1908 he returned to
Macleod, where he had many friends.

James Wilson died at his home in
Macleod on Friday, August 17, 1928.
He was 75 years of age. He had been ill for
the past six months, and his death was
not unexpected. He was born in Scot-
land some years ago, and settled with
his family in Macleod, where he was
employed as a farm hand. He was a
member of the Macleod branch of the
Blood Reserve and later became an
Indian agent. In 1908 he returned to
Macleod, where he had many friends.

James Wilson died at his home in
Macleod on Friday, August 17, 1928.
He was 75 years of age. He had been ill for
the past six months, and his death was
not unexpected. He was born in Scot-
land some years ago, and settled with
his family in Macleod, where he was
employed as a farm hand. He was a
member of the Macleod branch of the
Blood Reserve and later became an
Indian agent. In 1908 he returned to
Macleod, where he had many friends.

James Wilson died at his home in
Macleod on Friday, August 17, 1928.
He was 75 years of age. He had been ill for
the past six months, and his death was
not unexpected. He was born in Scot-
land some years ago, and settled with
his family in Macleod, where he was
employed as a farm hand. He was a
member of the Macleod branch of the
Blood Reserve and later became an
Indian agent. In 1908 he returned to
Macleod, where he had many friends.

James Wilson died at his home in
Macleod on Friday, August 17, 1928.
He was 75 years of age. He had been ill for
the past six months, and his death was
not unexpected. He was born in Scot-
land some years ago, and settled with
his family in Macleod, where he was
employed as a farm hand. He was a
member of the Macleod branch of the
Blood Reserve and later became an
Indian agent. In 1908 he returned to
Macleod, where he had many friends.

James Wilson died at his home in
Macleod on Friday, August 17, 1928.
He was 75 years of age. He had been ill for
the past six months, and his death was
not unexpected. He was born in Scot-
land some years ago, and settled with
his family in Macleod, where he was
employed as a farm hand. He was a
member of the Macleod branch of the
Blood Reserve and later became an
Indian agent. In 1908 he returned to
Macleod, where he had many friends.

James Wilson died at his home in
Macleod on Friday, August 17, 1928.
He was 75 years of age. He had been ill for
the past six months, and his death was
not unexpected. He was born in Scot-
land some years ago, and settled with
his family in Macleod, where he was
employed as a farm hand. He was a
member of the Macleod branch of the
Blood Reserve and later became an
Indian agent. In 1908 he returned to
Macleod, where he had many friends.

James Wilson died at his home in
Macleod on Friday, August 17, 1928.
He was 75 years of age. He had been ill for
the past six months, and his death was
not unexpected. He was born in Scot-
land some years ago, and settled with
his family in Macleod, where he was
employed as a farm hand. He was a
member of the Macleod branch of the
Blood Reserve and later became an
Indian agent. In 1908 he returned to
Macleod, where he had many friends.

James Wilson died at his home in
Macleod on Friday, August 17, 1928.
He was 75 years of age. He had been ill for
the past six months, and his death was
not unexpected. He was born in Scot-
land some years ago, and settled with
his family in Macleod, where he was
employed as a farm hand. He was a
member of the Macleod branch of the
Blood Reserve and later became an
Indian agent. In 1908 he returned to
Macleod, where he had many friends.

James Wilson died at his home in
Macleod on Friday, August 17, 1928.
He was 75 years of age. He had been ill for
the past six months, and his death was
not unexpected. He was born in Scot-
land some years ago, and settled with
his family in Macleod, where he was
employed as a farm hand. He was a
member of the Macleod branch of the
Blood Reserve and later became an
Indian agent. In 1908 he returned to
Macleod, where he had many friends.

James Wilson died at his home in
Macleod on Friday, August 17, 1928.
He was 75 years of age. He had been ill for
the past six months, and his death was
not unexpected. He was born in Scot-
land some years ago, and settled with
his family in Macleod, where he was
employed as a farm hand. He was a
member of the Macleod branch of the
Blood Reserve and later became an
Indian agent. In 1908 he returned to
Macleod, where he had many friends.

James Wilson died at his home in
Macleod on Friday, August 17, 1928.
He was 75 years of age. He had been ill for
the past six months, and his death was
not unexpected. He was born in Scot-
land some years ago, and settled with
his family in Macleod, where he was
employed as a farm hand. He was a
member of the Macleod branch of the
Blood Reserve and later became an
Indian agent. In 1908 he returned to
Macleod, where he had many friends.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL NEWS

SCHOOL STARTS ON TUESDAY

SEPTEMBER 4th

Yesterday's yesterday while today's
here, today till tomorrow
appear, tomorrow till the day
after, today's are studies as long as they last.

Jimmy Forbes of Grasmere was
visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. Young over
the week-end.

Miss Helen Parker was a week-end
visitor in Lethbridge, where she attended a vacation at Nelson and
Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Barker are spending a vacation at Nelson and

Miss Gertrude Sanderson is spending a couple of weeks at her home,
east of Macleod.

Wesley Shield of Beach and Company was a business visitor to Calgary on Tuesday week.

Miss Mildred McLeod of Grasmere
is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur
Young for a few days this week.

Mrs. C. D. T. Becker and Miss
Lillian Becker, are enjoying a holiday
at the C. D. T. Becker's.

G. R. Johnston, manager of the Bank of Montreal, spent the weekend at Waterbury Lakes with friends.

Mrs. W. J. Ryan returned to her
home on Monday night, after visiting
in Calgary for the past two weeks.

Miss Jessie Grant of Calgary is
visiting her vacation with friends
and relatives in Macleod and the country.

Mrs. A. T. Leather and Miss T.
Leather, who have been visiting in Macleod for several weeks, returned
to Macleod last Saturday.

Miss Helen McFarlane, who has been the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Kirk
retained to her home in Calgary last
week, accompanied by Miss Velma
Kirk, who will be her guest.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Andrews, formerly
of Macleod, now of Port Huron, Ont.,
C. visited friends in Macleod over
the week-end enroute to Calgary over
the Banff Windermere Road.

At the Horticultural Show of flowers and vegetables held at Calgary
this morning, the prize for collection of six daisies,
and first prize for collection of six daisies,
and first prize for collection of six daisies,

R. G. Hutchinson of Dayton, Ohio
and N. Mahoney of Macleod, now of
Pacific Grain Company, Calgary, were
visitors in Macleod last week, accompanied by Arthur Young, spent
several days fishing at the North Fork.

Among the visitors from town to Waterbury Lakes last week-end were
Mr. J. Young and two daughters,
Mr. and Mrs. Longhead, Mr. and
Mrs. Dillingham, Mrs. R. Ferguson
and Mrs. E. Whipple, Mr. and Mrs. E.
Neil and N. Dillman.

Word has been received from New York to the effect that Mr. and Mrs.
S. P. Fraser formerly of Macleod, now of
New Fraser, B. C. are on a visit to the east and during the trip, Mr. and Mrs. Fraser will be at his home in New Fraser, B. C. for a few days.

James Wilson died at his home in
Macleod on Friday, August 17, 1928.
He was 75 years of age. He had been ill for
the past six months, and his death was
not unexpected. He was born in Scot-
land some years ago, and settled with
his family in Macleod, where he was
employed as a farm hand. He was a
member of the Macleod branch of the
Blood Reserve and later became an
Indian agent. In 1908 he returned to
Macleod, where he had many friends.

James Wilson died at his home in
Macleod on Friday, August 17, 1928.
He was 75 years of age. He had been ill for
the past six months, and his death was
not unexpected. He was born in Scot-
land some years ago, and settled with
his family in Macleod, where he was
employed as a farm hand. He was a
member of the Macleod branch of the
Blood Reserve and later became an
Indian agent. In 1908 he returned to
Macleod, where he had many friends.

James Wilson died at his home in
Macleod on Friday, August 17, 1928.
He was 75 years of age. He had been ill for
the past six months, and his death was
not unexpected. He was born in Scot-
land some years ago, and settled with
his family in Macleod, where he was
employed as a farm hand. He was a
member of the Macleod branch of the
Blood Reserve and later became an
Indian agent. In 1908 he returned to
Macleod, where he had many friends.

James Wilson died at his home in
Macleod on Friday, August 17, 1928.
He was 75 years of age. He had been ill for
the past six months, and his death was
not unexpected. He was born in Scot-
land some years ago, and settled with
his family in Macleod, where he was
employed as a farm hand. He was a
member of the Macleod branch of the
Blood Reserve and later became an
Indian agent. In 1908 he returned to
Macleod, where he had many friends.

James Wilson died at his home in
Macleod on Friday, August 17, 1928.
He was 75 years of age. He had been ill for
the past six months, and his death was
not unexpected. He was born in Scot-
land some years ago, and settled with
his family in Macleod, where he was
employed as a farm hand. He was a
member of the Macleod branch of the
Blood Reserve and later became an
Indian agent. In 1908 he returned to
Macleod, where he had many friends.

James Wilson died at his home in
Macleod on Friday, August 17, 1928.
He was 75 years of age. He had been ill for
the past six months, and his death was
not unexpected. He was born in Scot-
land some years ago, and settled with
his family in Macleod, where he was
employed as a farm hand. He was a
member of the Macleod branch of the
Blood Reserve and later became an
Indian agent. In 1908 he returned to
Macleod, where he had many friends.

James Wilson died at his home in
Macleod on Friday, August 17, 1928.
He was 75 years of age. He had been ill for
the past six months, and his death was
not unexpected. He was born in Scot-
land some years ago, and settled with
his family in Macleod, where he was
employed as a farm hand. He was a
member of the Macleod branch of the
Blood Reserve and later became an
Indian agent. In 1908 he returned to
Macleod, where he had many friends.

James Wilson died at his home in
Macleod on Friday, August 17, 1928.
He was 75 years of age. He had been ill for
the past six months, and his death was
not unexpected. He was born in Scot-
land some years ago, and settled with
his family in Macleod, where he was
employed as a farm hand. He was a
member of the Macleod branch of the
Blood Reserve and later became an
Indian agent. In 1908 he returned to
Macleod, where he had many friends.

James Wilson died at his home in
Macleod on Friday, August 17, 1928.
He was 75 years of age. He had been ill for
the past six months, and his death was
not unexpected. He was born in Scot-
land some years ago, and settled with
his family in Macleod, where he was
employed as a farm hand. He was a
member of the Macleod branch of the
Blood Reserve and later became an
Indian agent. In 1908 he returned to
Macleod, where he had many friends.

James Wilson died at his home in
Macleod on Friday, August 17, 1928.
He was 75 years of age. He had been ill for
the past six months, and his death was
not unexpected. He was born in Scot-
land some years ago, and settled with
his family in Macleod, where he was
employed as a farm hand. He was a
member of the Macleod branch of the
Blood Reserve and later became an
Indian agent. In 1908 he returned to
Macleod, where he had many friends.

James Wilson died at his home in
Macleod on Friday, August 17, 1928.
He was 75 years of age. He had been ill for
the past six months, and his death was
not unexpected. He was born in Scot-
land some years ago, and settled with
his family in Macleod, where he was
employed as a farm hand. He was a
member of the Macleod branch of the
Blood Reserve and later became an
Indian agent. In 1908 he returned to
Macleod, where he had many friends.

James Wilson died at his home in
Macleod on Friday, August 17, 1928.
He was 75 years of age. He had been ill for
the past six months, and his death was
not unexpected. He was born in Scot-
land some years ago, and settled with
his family in Macleod, where he was
employed as a farm hand. He was a
member of the Macleod branch of the
Blood Reserve and later became an
Indian agent. In 1908 he returned to
Macleod, where he had many friends.

James Wilson died at his home in
Macleod on Friday, August 17, 1928.
He was 75 years of age. He had been ill for
the past six months, and his death was
not unexpected. He was born in Scot-
land some years ago, and settled with
his family in Macleod, where he was
employed as a farm hand. He was a
member of the Macleod branch of the
Blood Reserve and later became an
Indian agent. In 1908 he returned to
Macleod, where he had many friends.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL NEWS

SCHOOL STARTS ON TUESDAY

SEPTEMBER 4th

Yesterday's yesterday while today's
here, today till tomorrow
appear, tomorrow till the day
after, today's are studies as long as they last.

Jimmy Forbes of Grasmere was
visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. Young over
the week-end.

Miss Helen Parker was a week-end
visitor in Lethbridge, where she attended a vacation at Nelson and
Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Barker are spending a vacation at Nelson and

Miss Gertrude Sanderson is spend-
ing a couple of weeks at her home,
east of Macleod.

Wesley Shield of Beach and Company was a business visitor to Calgary on Tuesday week.

Miss Mildred McLeod of Grasmere
is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur
Young for a few days this week.

Mrs. C. D. T. Becker and Miss
Lillian Becker, are enjoying a holiday
at the C. D. T. Becker's.

G. R. Johnston, manager of the Bank of Montreal, spent the weekend at Waterbury Lakes with friends.

Mrs. W. J. Ryan returned to her
home on Monday night, after visiting
in Calgary for the past two weeks.

Miss Jessie Grant of Calgary is
visiting her vacation with friends
and relatives in Macleod and the country.

Mrs. A. T. Leather and Miss T.
Leather, who have been visiting in Macleod for several weeks, returned
to Macleod last Saturday.

Miss Helen McFarlane, who has been the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Kirk
retained to her home in Calgary last
week, accompanied by Miss Velma
Kirk, who will be her guest.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Andrews, formerly
of Macleod, now of Port Huron, Ont.,
C. visited friends in Macleod over
the week-end enroute to Calgary over
the Banff Windermere Road.

At the Horticultural Show of flowers and vegetables held at Calgary
this morning, the prize for collection of six daisies,
and first prize for collection of six daisies,
and first prize for collection of six daisies,

R. G. Hutchinson of Dayton, Ohio
and N. Mahoney of Macleod, now of
Pacific Grain Company, Calgary, were
visitors in Macleod last week, accompanied by Arthur Young, spent
several days fishing at the North Fork.

Among the visitors from town to Waterbury Lakes last week-end were
Mr. J. Young and two daughters,
Mr. and Mrs. Longhead, Mr. and
Mrs. Dillingham, Mrs. R. Ferguson
and Mrs. E. Whipple, Mr. and Mrs. E.
Neil and N. Dillman.

Word has been received from New York to the effect that Mr. and Mrs.
S. P. Fraser formerly of Macleod, now of
New Fraser, B. C. are on a visit to the east and during the trip, Mr. and Mrs. Fraser will be at his home in New Fraser, B. C. for a few days.

James Wilson died at his home in
Macleod on Friday, August 17, 1928.
He was 75 years of age. He had been ill for
the past six months, and his death was
not unexpected. He was born in Scot-
land some years ago, and settled with
his family in Macleod, where he was
employed as a farm hand. He was a
member of the Macleod branch of the
Blood Reserve and later became an
Indian agent. In 1908 he returned to
Macleod, where he had many friends.

James Wilson died at his home in
Macleod on Friday, August 17, 1928.
He was 75 years of age. He had been ill for
the past six months, and his death was
not unexpected. He was born in Scot-
land some years ago, and settled with
his family in Macleod, where he was
employed as a farm hand. He was a
member of the Macleod branch of the
Blood Reserve and later became an
Indian agent. In 1908 he returned to
Macleod, where he had many friends.

James Wilson died at his home in
Macleod on Friday, August 17, 1928.
He was 75 years of age. He had been ill for
the past six months, and his death was
not unexpected. He was born in Scot-
land some years ago, and settled with
his family in Macleod, where he was
employed as a farm hand. He was a
member of the Macleod branch of the
Blood Reserve and later became an
Indian agent. In 1908 he returned to
Macleod, where he had many friends.

James Wilson died at his home in
Macleod on Friday, August 17, 1928.
He was 75 years of age. He had been ill for
the past six months, and his death was
not unexpected. He was born in Scot-
land some years ago, and settled with
his family in Macleod, where he was
employed as a farm hand. He was a
member of the Macleod branch of the
Blood Reserve and later became an
Indian agent. In 1908 he returned to
Macleod, where he had many friends.

James Wilson died at his home in
Macleod on Friday, August 17, 1928.
He was 75 years of age. He had been ill for
the past six months, and his death was
not unexpected. He was born in Scot-
land some years ago, and settled with
his family in Macleod, where he was
employed as a farm hand. He was a
member of the Macleod branch of the
Blood Reserve and later became an
Indian agent. In 1908 he returned to
Macleod, where he had many friends.